

Maximise Your Travel Budget

In partnership with FCM, Church Resources' focus remains maximising your organisation's travel budget. The first step to doing this is to ensure that your travel policy is working hard for your travel programme objectives. The second step is to ensure you are taking advantage of all the tech tools available to you to optimise process and confidently return to travel.

Here are some pieces FCM have put together to help guide you and ultimately maximise your travel budget.
