

Procurement made fair and easy

Good procurement requires effective practices that improve efficiency, reduce costs and enhance overall customer experience. While some businesses rely on internal procurement measures to secure the best price on goods and services, others understand there is another way to achieve this important goal, all while reducing risk and increasing rewards.

By aligning with an accredited procurement aggregator, businesses and organisations of all types and sizes can take advantage of an expansive supplier network and enhanced buying power.

Joining an Australia-wide procurement network, such as one through Procurement Australia, can be an excellent way to:

- Access hundreds of everyday and innovative products and services through one streamline process
- Reduce risk and improve internal procurement processes
- Save precious time and money.

Learn more about how joining Procurement Australia as a member can help to simplify your business' procurement practices today.

Who is Procurement Australia?

For over 30 years, Procurement Australia has been one of Australia's leading procurement services companies. With decades of experience across both the private and public sectors, they are regarded as a leader in negotiating and facilitating contracts for members, clients and suppliers.

With portfolios exceeding hundreds of millions and millions more products aggregated and contracted every day, Procurement Australia provides quality services and products that meet their diverse members' often-complex governance and compliance requirements. There is no one type of Procurement Australia member; they include representatives from the public sector right through to commercial businesses in a variety of industries.

Alongside a focus on strong and mutually beneficial partnerships, Procurement Australia works with members and suppliers to find innovative and sustainable solutions to familiar and emerging procurement challenges.

Today, Procurement Australia is one of the nation's largest member-led procurement solutions companies. With a focus on ethical and holistic procurement, Procurement Australia is leading the way with the next era of sustainable procurement with a goal to procure a fairer world for all of us.

Procurement Australia's 'We get it' approach

Procurement Australia is proudly member-led. This means they work directly with over 24,000 members and hundreds of approved suppliers to continually improve transparent and ethical procurement practices that work for the betterment of everyone involved.

The team at Procurement Australia has generations of experience working across both the public and private sectors. In that time they've developed a solid reputation based on integrity, rigour and a commitment to compliance across all sectors, whether it be not-for-profit through to government and commercial.

With expertise across energy and utilities, food service, health and care consumables, travel, telecommunications and much more, if there's something you need Procurement Australia can get it for you.

Why become a Procurement Australia member?

There are many benefits to becoming a Procurement Australia member:

1

Take advantage of FREE membership

2

Exclusive member access to the best prices for both products and services

3

Save time with a team of procurement experts across a diverse range of solutions, from health and energy through to computers and recruitment

4

Maximise savings with aggregated buying power of 24,000 members

5

Reduce risk exposure through Procurement Australia's assessment and accreditation process with industry leading suppliers

6

Work with an accredited aggregator at the front of the shift towards ethical and sustainable procurement

7

10/10 customer service guarantee

Unsure if you're already a member?

With over 30 years' experience and 24,000 members and counting, it's safe to say Procurement Australia represents a substantial number of businesses and organisations around the country.

It's possible that you are already a Procurement Australia member. Checking if you're a current member is easy. Simply send the team an enquiry via our contact form and a Relationship Manager will respond as soon as possible.

Become a Procurement Australia member

If you're ready to join Procurement Australia's network of members, now's the time to start the process.

Procurement Australia has saved members millions of dollars and created opportunities for thousands of members. Get in contact with Procurement Australia today to start your free membership.

PROCUREMENT
AUSTRALIA